Week One:

Ok folks we are almost into the end of our first week. Yippy. I am so excited you have all chosen to allow your daughters to participate in our organization. I hope you all find this to be a great experience not only for your child but for you as well.

Sunday is a big day for the girls. Cheer Camps is a full day full of various activities such as cheers, stunts and dances. Check in is 8AM, however due to so many other organizations attending it is helpful to arrive by no latter than 7:30AM. I am not sure what the parking situation may be like , but do anticipate a possible issue with late comers. Hint Hint lol. If you have questions let me know.
