COACHES CORNER

Well here we go, the season is off and running and these games count. The goal for our team is to make the playoffs and push for that season ending game. The boys had a great practice on Tuesday and we are really going to push them physically. The teams in our league are tough so the boys must focus on their assignments and play hard and fast. This weekend might be hot so make sure they are drinking plenty of water this week. Thank you in advance for all your help at the next two home games.

Go Jags!!!
